COMMENCEMENT AT NEWBERRY COLLEGE

DR. JACOBS DELIVERS GREAT MESSAGE TO GRADUATES

Dr. Luther Kuhns Has Pleasure in Return to Scenes of Boyhood. Delivers Eloquent Address

The annual commencement exercises of Newberry college began Sunday morning, June 5, 1921, with the baccalaureate services in the opera house the sermon being delivered by the Rev. Carlisle M. Jacobs, D. D., of Philadelphia, Pa.

Vases and baskets of beautiful daisies, lilies and palms adorned the platform, as well as Newberry college pennants and the blue and gold banner of the class of 1921.

The twenty-three graduates in their caps and gowns occupied special seats in the parquette and the rest of the hall and balconies were entirely filled by the throngs of interested people.

Dr. C. A. Freed, pastor of the Lutheran Church of the Redeemer, conducted the services, which were opened with an anthem, DeKoven's "Recessional," which was beautifully rendered by a large chorus with Mrs. E. B. Setzler at the piano.

The first hymn, "O Worship the King," was sung by the congregation who stood as the last verse was begun.

After the responsive reading and repetition of the creed, the lesson from 1st John, 3rd chapter was read by Dr. Freed. This was followed by prayer by Dr. Freed and the hymn, "In the Cross of Christ I Glory," was sung by the congregation.

The baccalaureate sermon was delivered by Dr. C. M. Jacobs and was a masterpiece in theme and oratory. His text was taken from Philippians, 3rd chapter, 20th verse: "For our conversation is in heaven," translating this more freely as Christian or Heavenly Citizenship, which was a most timely subject. Couched in simple, though beautiful language, his words conveyed to the graduates and others commonsense, practical truths drawn from this text as affecting all phases of life.

Dr. Jacobs said that the consciousness of heavenly citizenship helps men and women to place the proper value on material things as compared with things that endure, and that the only standard of values by which a thing may be rightly judged is the law of Jesus Christ; his second application of the text was that heavenly citizenship affects the whole of a man's life and not simply a part of it—that the law of heavenly citizenship must apply to his home life, his business life and his political life, and in this connection he said "at no social evil could be corrected except on the basis of the heavenly law; his next thought was that heavenly citizenship gives the standard by which earthly citizenship may be judged—that the solution of many problems of today are depending more and more on educated men and women, but that education that is not balanced by character is a menace. He spoke of the need of putting God first in our hearts, and our country second to have a prosperous nation, and that the only way to prevent wars is to have the Prince of Peace in our hearts when the earth shall be full of the glory of the Lord.

The sermon was followed by the Lord's prayer, after which the offering was taken, during which a solo, "O Divine Redeemer," by Gounod, was beautifully sung by Mrs. J. O. Willson of Spartanburg.

Announcements were made by Dr. Derrick, followed by the hymn, "The Son of God Goes Forth to War." Benediction was pronounced by Dr. Jacobs.

The address before the Young Men's Christian association of Newberry college was made in the opera house Sunday evening by Dr. L. M. Kuhns of Omaha, Nebraska.

Dr. Kuhns was introduced by Dr. J. M. Kibler, who was a classmate of Dr. Kuhns in the early days of their college life. Dr. Kibler referred very pleasantly to the father of Dr. Kuhns, the Rev. H. W. Kuhns, who, as pastor of the Lutheran church in Newberry, was instrumental in having Newberry college relocated from Walhalla to its present location.

He said that in coming back to Newberry he felt that he was making a pilgrimage to the shrine of his youth.

The theme of his address was, "Making the Grades," a subject which he handled with masterly skill. JURY DECLARES MANNING GUILTY

NEGRO FARM BOSS SENTENCED TO PRISON

Defendant Again Tells His Story of Killing Negroes on Williams' Farm

Covington, Ga., May 31.—Clyde Manning, negro farm boss for John S. Williams, was convicted of murder in superior court here late today and sentenced to life imprisonment—the same sentence passed on Williams when he was convicted here a short time ago. Manning had testified he aided Williams in killing negro farm hands to halt a peonage investigation but claimed he acted in fear of his life.

The jury was out 35 minutes and then returned the same verdict as that of the Williams jury—murder with recommendation for mercy, which automatically carried a life term. E. Marvin Underwood, employed by a group of Georgians to represent Manning, made a motion for a new trial and Judge John B. Hutcheson fixed the hearing for July 30 at Decatur. Williams is also seeking a new trial.

Manning was tried on the specific charge of the murder of Lindsey Peterson, of whose murder Williams was convicted and today he calmly related the story he told at the Williams trial, claiming he and another negro killed 11 farm hands on Williams' orders. Later Manning claims to have slain the other negro. Peterson and two other negroes were alleged to have been brought into this county at night from the Jasper county farm and drowned.

Under Georgia law Manning could not have been held accountable had he been able to convince the jury he killed the men through fear for his own life and the defense based its case on this while the state sought to show the negro was "a willing accomplice."

Fined for Loafing

The State, 28th.

William Harris, negro, was fined $10 yesterday in the city court on a charge of loafing. Harris told the judge that he came from Newberry and had been released from the penitentiary May 16 after serving a term for "something about government pistols." A negro woman told the judge that a pocketbook containing $41 had been stolen from a room in her house and Harris was seen standing at a window. Richard Oglesby, negro, was fined $10 on a charge of loafing. Officers said the negro ran like a deer on the approach of the Black Maria and when asked why he ran he said, "I was playing with my dog."

Transporter Shoots at Officers

Sephes McDowell, colored, was committed to jail Sunday by Magistrate Richardson of No. 11 township, charged with transporting whiskey and resisting officers of the law in the discharge of their duty. From the best information the reporter can get, McDowell has been in habit of bringing whiskey from North Carolina to the lower part of this county and disposing of the same. On Saturday night he was walking in the public road with a sack in his hand, when Magistrate Richardson, Constable Graham and Mayor Boland of Pomaria commanded him to halt. His answer was a volley of shots. The officers returned the fire, wounding McDowell in the right lung, elbow and leg. The negro's shots went wild. The doctors are of the opinion that the wounded man's chances of recovery are good.

The School Improvement association of Hartford will hold a regular meeting on Friday afternoon at 4 o'clock. Ice cream and cake will be for sale on the grounds, with a cake walk and other entertainment after the meeting. The public is invited.

MOLLOHON DEFEATS WATTS MILL BY SCORE OF 6 TO 0

The Mollohon ball team, which has begun playing some real baseball after a rather bad opening of the season, inflicted on its opponents the second consecutive shutout when it defeated the fast Watts Mill team of Laurens Saturday, June 4th, by a score of 6 to 0. The game was played on the Watts mill's grounds at Laurens, and was a Mollohon victory from the beginning.

By bunching hits in the first inning, which was started by Derrick's double between right and center fields, the Mollohon boys ran three men across the plate. This was repeated in the fourth inning when from three consecutive hits the visitors managed to get two more men home. The climax of the game came in the sixth inning when Cameron, O., pulled one of his Babe Ruth stunts by lifting the pill over center field up hill for a home run. Derrick's pitching for Mollohon was one feature of the game, he allowing the Laurens boys only three scattered hits, and striking out twelve men.

JASPER FARMERS ABANDON COTTON

NOT HUNDRED ACRES PLANTED IN COUNTY

Truck, Sweet Potatoes and Watermelons Are Now Claiming Attention

The State.

Ridgeland, May 27.—Jasper county farmers are no longer depending upon "King Cotton" for a living. This year there are not over 100 acres, if that amount, planted in cotton throughout the entire county, for the farmers have learned well the lesson that with the boll weevil and low prices that if they are to make a living they must turn to other crops. As a result truck farming is claiming the farmers' attention, many acres of truck having been planted and already marketed. Watermelons are looking fine and it now appears that shipments can be made by the first of July, which will be about two weeks sooner than usual. The sweet potato crop is the largest being planted this year by local farmers.
